BACKGROUND

Join UNITAR and Oxford Brookes University for an open webinar exploring wellbeing, resilience, and mental health in humanitarian and peacebuilding contexts.

Working in humanitarian and conflict-affected settings can be deeply meaningful and rewarding, but it can also expose professionals to high levels of stress, uncertainty, emotional pressure, and repeated exposure to crisis. Drawing on research, professional practice, and lived experience, this conversation will explore what helps individuals and teams sustain their wellbeing while working in complex environments.

The session also offers an opportunity to learn more about the Humanitarian Action and Peacebuilding programme portfolio, including the master's degree, Postgraduate Diploma, Postgraduate Certificate, specialised Short-Course Certifications, and Individual Modules, and to hear directly from faculty and alumni.

➡ 8 December 2026 | 4 p.m. CET | Online | Register to save your spot: https://unitar.zoom.us/webinar/register/1417937221681/WN_Pxo6_-X8T2iOjT1rIex09A

*This webinar is an informative session; no certificates of any kind will be issued for this webinar.
