ANTECEDENTES

In today’s global environment, individuals and organizations regularly navigate intercultural situations and interactions. Developing cross-cultural competence is essential for operating effectively in these diverse settings, helping to prevent misunderstandings and reduce bias or prejudice in communication and negotiation processes. An awareness of how culture influences behavior, and developing a refined sensitivity, relevant skills, and practical competence, can significantly improve the quality of international interactions and contribute to more constructive and collaborative outcomes.

In light of these challenges, the course Cross-Cultural Communication: Developing Cultural Awareness, Competences and Skills was developed to address this need and support participants in building the knowledge and tools required for effective intercultural communication.

OBJETIVOS DEL EVENTO

The objective of this e-learning course is to build a deeper understanding of how culture influences communication in international professional settings. With a focus on developing cultural awareness, the course provides practical tools to strengthen competences and skills for navigating intercultural interactions, ultimately supporting more effective and sustainable international relations.

OBJETIVOS DEL APRENDIZAJE

The Learning Objectives for this course are the following:

- Enhance knowledge about concepts of culture;
- Explore challenges of cross-cultural communication;
- Expand the participant's cross-cultural competences;
- Deepen the knowledge about negotiations and leadership in a cross-cultural context.

CONTENIDO Y ESTRUCTURA

The course will include the following content:

- Concepts and dimensions of culture;

- Cross-cultural communication;
- Cross-cultural competence;
- Working in international contexts;
- Cross-cultural negotiations.

METODOLOGÍA

This online course is moderated by an intercultural consultant, is asynchronous, and places an emphasis on online discussions and self-paced learning. The participants will be primarily responsible for their own learning over the four-week span of the course. The course will contain the following components:

- Compulsory and optional reading material, intended to teach the basic concepts and principles of the lesson's subject-matter;
- Additional audio-visual and reading material related to the lessons;
- Discussion board sessions at the end of each module. To be eligible for the course certificate, a passing grade of 80% on participation and test assessments is required;
- A Community Discussion Board will be available for participants to post questions or comments visible to the instructor and other participants. This discussion board will be moderated by the trainer and UNITAR;

Estimated learning time: minimum of 30 hours.

Participants will be eligible to receive a certificate of completion after the successful completion of the course.

PÚBLICO OBJETIVO

The course targets mid to senior-level governmental officials as well as staff of intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations. It also targets entry-level and mid-career diplomats and private and public sector specialists. Moreover, young professionals from related fields are welcome. Postgraduate students with relevant experience in multicultural working environments are also encouraged to apply.
