ANTECEDENTES

The IEL XP series, under CIFAL Curitiba partnership, aims to connect professionals in the industrial sector who seek not only technical updates but also strategic networking, exchange of experiences, and practical pathways to generate measurable results within their organizations.

The edition in Curitiba combines two key themes:

1. Professional Positioning and Employability – Organizing CVs and LinkedIn profiles strategically to increase visibility and competitiveness in the labor market.
2. Invisible Talent: Where Companies Are Not Yet Looking – A reflective and applied workshop examining recruitment filters, talent scarcity, and innovative approaches to identifying and developing overlooked talent pools.

The initiative addresses current workforce challenges, including talent shortages, employability gaps, and evolving recruitment practices in the industrial sector.

OBJETIVOS DEL EVENTO

- Strengthen professional positioning skills among participants (CV and LinkedIn optimization);
- Promote strategic networking and knowledge exchange among industry professionals;
- Encourage companies to rethink recruitment filters and hiring criteria;
- Address talent shortages through innovative and inclusive talent development strategies;
- Support practical solutions for workforce development in the industrial sector.

OBJETIVOS DEL APRENDIZAJE

By the end of the workshop, participants will:

- Organize and optimize their CVs to align with industry expectations;
- Improve LinkedIn profiles for strategic professional visibility;
- Identify common biases and restrictive hiring filters in recruitment processes;
