

UN Approach to International Criminal Justice (Session 2)

Plazo: 5 Apr 2017

Tipo:	Course
Ubicación:	New York, United States of America
Fecha:	6 Abr 2017
Duración:	1 Days
Área del programa:	International Law
Sitio web:	http://www.unitar.org
Precio:	500,00 US$
Correo Electrónico del Centro de Coordinación del Evento:	nyo@unitar.org
Número del Centro de Coordinación del evento:	2129639196
Colaboración:	Rutgers University

ANTECEDENTES

The short course on International Criminal Law (ICL) will examine select issues and current problems in international criminal law. This course will address the history and development of the international criminal justice, with a special emphasis on the Ad Hoc International Tribunals and the International Criminal Court (ICC). The course will give an overview of the elements of the substantive international crimes: War Crimes, Crimes against Humanity, Genocide, and Aggression. The course will pay special attention to the argument regarding some current issues under discussion at the United Nations related to the criminal justice, such as the Security Council's relationship to the International Criminal Court, the application of the principle of universal jurisdiction, and the concept of responsibility to protect.

OBJETIVOS DEL EVENTO

Key Objectives:

Develop a clear understanding of the institutional and doctrinal foundations of international criminal justice

Perform an analysis of ongoing situations from the perspective of international criminal justice

INFORMACIÓN ADICIONAL

- This course is the first in a series of two courses.
- The first course will be on March 30th, 2017.
- The $1000 fee for this events is for both courses.
- A single session is $500
- This course is from 2:00pm- 5:00pm at the UN Headquarters
- After successful participation in both courses, participants will receive a certificate signed by both Rutgers University and UNITAR.