

Peace, Justice, and Inclusion Through Mediation (SDG 16)

Tipo:	Workshop
Ubicación:	New York, United States of America
Fecha:	13 Nov 2017
Duración:	1 Days
Área del programa:	Peace Security and Diplomacy, , Peacemaking and Conflict Prevention, , Peacekeeping, , International Law
Sitio web:	http://unitar.org/ny
Precio:	0,00 US$
Correo Electrónico del Centro de Coordinación del Evento:	nyo@unitar.org
Colaboración:	Government of Sweden, Columbia Law School

ANTECEDENTES

Inclusive societies are the most peaceful and just societies. The United Nations recognizes this concept and has made the promotion of peaceful, just, and inclusive societies a priority in its Agenda 2030. To achieve this goal the UN has emphasized access to justice for all and building accountable institutions.

OBJETIVOS DEL EVENTO

Mediation is an inherently inclusive process that, when used properly, results in more just and sustainable solutions to problems. This workshop will provide participants with a grounding in mediation's core principals. It will also introduce advanced conflict resolution concepts for developing models that can be used in communities, judicial, systems, and governments to increase transparency and accountability. The skills taught and models introduced will emphasize inclusivity for all members of society.

METODOLOGÍA

The workshop will utilize traditional pedagogical methodology along with more cutting-edge interactive exercises to practice skills. Finally, small and large group discussion will be used to draw upon the cultural expertise of the workshop's participants.

PÚBLICO OBJETIVO

Diplomats and members of Permanent Missions