ANTECEDENTES

This event will take place on Wednesday 17 November 2021 from 10:00 am - 11:30 am EST.

As American business executive Jack Welch notes, “Before you are a leader, success is all about growing yourself. When you become a leader, success is all about growing others.” The most effective leaders are not only tuned in to those who they lead, but are also self-aware. In this interactive workshop from the Columbia Law School Advanced Mediation Clinic, participants will focus on building capacity for effective leadership. They will expand their conceptions of leadership to include many different leadership styles, identify which of their own individual traits, knowledge, and skill sets they can use to help them become effective leaders, and will be equipped with the knowledge of how self-awareness can better complement their leadership style.
