CONTEXTE

The term gender has become central in contemporary literature about development, security and conflict. It is often invoked in post-war contexts in relation to the disproportionate and unequal effects of war on men and women. But what do we mean by the term gender, especially when we are referring to individuals and relations at local and global levels?

OBJECTIFS DU COURS

This course aims to introduce the concept of gender through different theoretical perspectives. In addition to a theoretical overview, examples from everyday life will be discussed to illustrate the fact that gender is everywhere. The course offers various lenses through which you can look at the complex concept of gender and the inequalities that exist in your environment.

OBJECTIFS D'APPRENTISSAGE

At the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Define gender as socially embedded;
- Describe key gender-related terms;
- Distinguish between different conceptualizations of gender;
- Identify sources of gender inequality in their environment.

CONTENU ET STRUCTURE

The course is composed of 8 sections:

- Section 1: Defining gender.
- Section 2: Sex vs gender.
- Section 3: Gender as a social construct.
- Section 4: Gender as a shared identity.
- Section 5: Gender as order.
- Section 6: Gender as power hierarchy.
- Section 7: Gender stereotypes.
- Section 8: The UN approach to gender.

MÉTHODOLOGIE

The course is a self-guided, self-paced, web-based course that is on-going and can be accessed at any time. The material is presented in an interactive visual and text format with web-based reference resources. Multiple choice quizzes at the end of each lesson serve a dual function of assessing and evaluating the students’ understanding and retention and provide a further didactic function by reviewing the content.

At the successful completion of the course participants will be awarded with a badge.

AUDIENCE CIBLE

Primary audience: The course is designed for anyone who has an interest in the concept of gender and gender equality.

Secondary audience: The course is geared towards anyone who wishes to garner a baggage of basic knowledge to then pursue more advanced courses in conflictology, notably UNITAR’s Master's Degree in Lifelong Learning in Conflict, Peace and Security de UNITAR.
