
CIFAL Honolulu - Period Poverty in Hawai'i: Advancing Gender Equity Through Malama Ma'i

People

Date limite: 21 Apr 2026

Type:	Public Lecture
Emplacement:	Honolulu, United States of America
Date:	22 Avr 2026
Durée:	1 Days
Domaine du programme:	Gender equality and social inclusion
Site internet:	https://maimovement.org/
Prix:	0.00 $US
Email du point focal de l'événement:	connor.flynn@chaminade.edu
Partenariat:	CIFAL Honolulu, , Chaminade University, , Ma'i Movement

CONTEXTE

Period poverty refers to the lack of access to menstrual products due to financial constraints, which affects many individuals globally. This issue often leads to significant barriers to education, work, and overall health for those who are impacted. This event promotes SDG 3: Good Health and Well-Being and SDG 5: Gender Equality.

CONTENU ET STRUCTURE

Guest Speaker, Q & A, GEMM Presentation

MÉTHODOLOGIE

Ma'I Movement, a non-profit organization that is dedicated to ending period poverty in Hawaii, was a guest speaker at our event. They defined period poverty and talked about how it affects access to education, employment, and health. Lastly, they talked about what they are currently doing to combat period poverty. Cifal Honolulu talked about the free menstrual stations that they have in the restrooms at Chaminade to combat period poverty and help the students to have access to menstrual products. Lastly, Cifal Honolulu gave out goodie bags with free menstrual products to the students and had a hormone balanced lunch.

AUDIENCE CIBLE

All faculty, staff, and students