CONTEXTE

The imperative for competencies in trade negotiation and economic diplomacy has become increasingly acute. Given the various global economic shocks and crises we had to confront in the past years the global community has realized that new ways and means to reform the global economic system have to be found. This course aims to help participants understand what economic diplomacy is, how it has evolved over time and how it has become a fundamental component of a country's foreign policy. It will also examine the various multilateral negotiating fora and the inter-relationship between them.

OBJECTIFS DU COURS

The online course aims to increase the knowledge of Economic Diplomacy, actors, fora, evolution and key issues. At the end of the course, participants will have gained the understanding of concepts and skills needed for effective engagement in Economic Diplomacy and multilateral negotiations.

OBJECTIFS D'APPRENTISSAGE

At the end of the course, participants should be able to:

- Discuss the basic concepts of economic diplomacy and how its practice has evolved;
- Identify key economic and development issues under negotiation in various multilateral forums;
- Explain the role and inter-relationships between the major multilateral economic and trade institutions;
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of tools and technique required in Economic Diplomacy.

MÉTHODOLOGIE

The course will be conducted in English over a period of four weeks, each week consisting of a module focusing on a different topic. The course will be delivered via UNITAR's e-Learning platform. This pedagogical tool will help the student meet the course's learning objectives through a self-paced study routine supported by multimedia, optional and required readings, discussion forums, assessment quizzes, and a wealth of other information.

AUDIENCE CIBLE

The course is designed for mid to senior-level government officers in ministries whose work is related to economic diplomacy and trade negotiations. It also targets entry-level and mid-career diplomats working in a multilateral setting. Private sector specialists and students whose work or studies are related to this subject are also encouraged to apply.
