

Module 3: Key Skills for a National or International Career Dealing with Global Issues

Cross-fertilizing Knowledge

Type:	Course
Emplacement:	Geneva, Switzerland
Date:	12 Mar 2018 to 16 mai 2018
Durée:	7 Days
Zone du programme:	Multilateral Diplomacy
Site internet:	http://www.meig.ch/
Prix:	0.00 $US
Personne de référence de l'événement:	melanie.cremona@unitar.org
Numéro de téléphone de la personne de référence pour cet évènement:	+41229178435

CONTEXTE

This module will help participants significantly improve their negotiation, crisis management, leadership, public speaking, report writing and other skills that are indispensable for a successful career at the national or international level. After a series of intensive and highly interactive workshops, participants will emerge confident to conduct complex negotiations, enhance their leadership qualities, improve aptitudes of recording and summarizing results of conferences and meetings as well as develop their public speaking, crisis management and diplomatic skills.

OBJECTIFS DU COURS

- Analyse how diplomatic negotiations are conducted
- Perform more efficiently as a negotiator
- Discern different forms and styles of diplomatic writing and reporting
- Utilize open sources for Diplomatic Reporting including Meetings Coverage, Summary Records, Process Verbal and Other Sources
- Strengthen writing skills for multilateral diplomacy
- Construct an oral communication effective in reaching an international audience
- Maximize a speech's impact on audiences and assimilation of the key messages
- Set a clear, measurable objective for each speech or presentation.

CONTENU ET STRUCTURE

The module consisted of the following three two-day sessions:

- Session 1: Diplomatic Report Writing
- Session 2: Public Speaking
- Session 3: Leadership
- Session 4: Negotiation Skills and Techniques

MÉTHODOLOGIE

-

AUDIENCE CIBLE

Participants of the Master of Advanced Studies in European and International Governance.