LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, participants should be able to:

1. Compare definitions and concepts of electoral conflict;
2. Examine vulnerabilities and early warning signs: security, political, social and economic factors that create susceptibilities for electoral conflict to occur;

3. Categorize conflict stakeholders by status and role;
4. Delineate a framework to profile electoral conflict that classifies perpetrators, victims, motives, tactics, locations and intensity;
5. Provide policy and programming options to consider when formulating approaches to counter the threats and insecurities revealed in the analysis.
