AMEX is holding a health and safety fair for their employees to raise awareness about the importance of personal safety and emergency preparedness planning at home and in the workplace.

The key goals and objectives of this open house are:

- To provide a platform for community partners working in emergency preparedness and safety.
- Provide entertaining modes of education for the public.
- Educate AMEX employees on emergency preparedness and safety practices.
- Raise awareness about the need for personal preparedness planning.
- Raise visibility of the work CIFAL York is doing within the community.
